Action of the Board

- Meeting was called to order by Andy Friedman
- Minutes from 9/2/2018 were approved.

Financial Reports

Due to a mandatory evacuation for Hurricane Florence and expected flooding after the hurricane, neither Happy Wilcox or Ginger Gray were able to provide financial reports. Both submitted email reports to the Board members at a later date.

- Happy Wilcox reported on 10/16/2018 that the GBA account balance on 9/30/2018 was $3756.20. Invoices for insurance, tax preparation and the billboard totaled $1,190.69.
- Ginger Gray reported on 10/15/2016 that the GBA events account has a balance of $6835.83. Expenses for MIP bands, security, beverages, stage rental and portalets totaled $5763.92.

Committee Reports

Design Committee:

Erin Angner reported that the Design Committee will be sprucing up the planters on Front St. They are also trying to meet with the Liberty Steel Mill folks to discuss plans for improving the grounds around the mill.

New Business

Kathryn Kossove sent email to Board members prior to the meeting suggesting the GBA promote a “Back in Business” event on October 6 to let people know that Georgetown businesses are open again. The Georgetown Times, Coastal Observer, GAB News and WPDE TV will be contacted to promote the day. A press release was created and will be shared with media outlets as well as with the GBA membership through email and on our social media accounts.
